

ID	y	x	Hint	Site Name	Description	Found Code	Translated Code	Owner	Contact Information	URL	QR Code
1	35.972812	-85.04757	Obed River	Tree Park	The Obed River Park has confirmed this site as a certified arboretum. This park has 35 acres filled with various trees and plants.	NEOBERGHZ	Arboretum	Obed River Park	(931) 484-6431
2	35.978523	-85.0461685	Failed Dam	100 Acre Lake	This is the site of the G.E. Harrison and J. Ridley Mitchell Dam that was built in 1930. It was 16 feet tall and was at the head of a 100 acre lake, with 20 feet at its deepest. It failed the next year and by 1932, it completely collapsed.	ZVGPURYY QNZ	Mitchell Dam	Obed River Park	(931) 484-6431
3	35.950479	-85.0271003	Kemmer Stand [1]	Kemmer Stand	In 1817, John Kemmer purchased land here and built Kemmer Stand, a wayside inn, at the intersection of Burke Road. It was two-story, two-section structure that housed many travelers traversing the Cumberland Plateau.	JNLFVQR VAA	Wayside Inn	Crossville Dermatology	(931) 253-1981
4	35.949779	-85.02757	Confederate Partisan	Confederate Guerilla	Samuel Ferguson was the most notorious Confederate guerilla leader in the Upper Cumberland Mountains. In 1861, he formed a company and began attacking Unionist partisans.	PUNZC	Champ	Crossville Depot	(931) 456-2586
5	35.948028	-85.026449	Sgt. Milo Lemert	Hindenburg Line	Milo Lemert was a Sergeant in Company G 119th Infantry 30th Division of Tennessee National Guard. He is credited with destroying three German machine gun nests on the Hindenburg line, but was killed while attempting to destroy the fourth.	BYQ UVPXBEL	Old Hickory	Cumberland County Assessor	(931) 484-5745
6	35.94772	-85.0262554	Union Partisan	Bushwhackers	David "Tinker Dave" Beaty, a native of Fentress County, was the best-known Union partisan in the Upper Cumberland Mountains. In 1862, he formed a group called Beaty's Company of Independent Tennessee Scouts, also variously called partisans, guerrillas, and bushwhackers.	GVAXRE QNIR	Tinker Dave	Military Memorial Museum	(931) 250-5525
7	35.947868	-85.025981	Steam Engine	Northville	This steam engine was brought to Cumberland County from Indiana by Samuel Cline around 1872. It powered sawmill and grist mill where what was Northville.	FNZHRY PYVAR	Samuel Cline	Cumberland County Courthouse	(931) 484-6442
8	35.947029	-85.025812	Palace Theater	Entertainment Tonight	The Palace Theater opened in November of 1938 and played an important part in the lives of many people and the community. The Palace is fully restored now and is a multi-use community auditorium and visitors' center.	CRESBEZVAT NEGF	Performing Arts	Palace Theatre	(931) 484-6133
9	35.93145	-85.012437	Home of Washington	N.S.D.A.R.	In 1999 by Crab-Orchard Chapter, National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution planted this Red Maple Tree from Mount Vernon in Honor of George Washington.	ERQ ZNCYR	Red Maple	American Legion	(931) 788-5587
10	35.931388	-85.01219	Past, Present, Future	Number 163	This is dedicated to the Past, Present, and Future members of Cumberland County's American Legion Post No. 163	NAPUBE QBJA	Anchor Down	American Legion	(931) 788-5587
11	35.897412	-84.993298	Creek to Lake	Cumberland Mountain	Cumberland Mountain State Park consists of 1,720 acres situated around Byrd Lake, a man-made lake created by the impoundment of Byrd Creek in the 1930s. The park is amidst an environmental microcosm of the Cumberland Plateau.	OLEQ	Byrd	Cumberland Mountain State Park	(931) 484-6138
12	35.900642	-84.9972	Divided by War	Family Dispute	The Civil War split some Cumberland County families apart forever. When the war began, the residents of the Upper Cumberland Plateau were divided in their loyalties. For instance, the numbers of Confederate and Union enlistments were about equal. One family in particular would never be the same. Elizabeth S. Ford divorced her husband, Christopher Ford, when he enlisted with the Confederacy. It resulted in a long custody battle over their two daughters and violence between their families.	SBEQ SNZVYL	Ford Family	Cumberland Mountain State Park	(931) 484-6138
13	35.899899	-84.998734	Bridge [2]	Unsuspected Bridge	Men from the Civilian Conservation Corps' built this unsuspected bridge between 1935 and 1940, for a 30 acre impoundment of Byrd's Creek.	FRIRA FCVYYJNLF	Seven Spillways	Cumberland Mountain State Park	(931) 484-6138
14	35.904505	-84.985017	Homesteads	FDR	The Cumberland Homesteads was one of the largest of 100 New Deal Subsistence Communities built to aid Cumberland County, and help build 251 homes for families. The tower served as government offices until 1947 and now serves as a museum.	ARJ QRNY	New Deal	Cumberland Mountain State Park	(931) 484-6138

[1] Crossville Mural

[2] Dock off of paved trail, can attach placard to dock railing. Photo Challenge.