

ID	y	x	Hint	Site Name	Description	Found Code	Translated Code	Owner	Contact Information	URL	QR Code
1	36.541929	-84.95956	Historic Park & Museum	York	The Sergeant Alvin C. York State Historic Park includes a visitor center modeled after York's general store, his two-story home, a gristmill, the York Bible School. The York Farm was designated a National Historic Landmark in 1977.	FRETRNAG LBEX	Sergeant York	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
2	36.542155	-84.960651	York Home	Homestead	This is the home of Alvin C. York. York and his wife, Gracie, raised their children (two daughters and five sons) after the conclusion of World War I. After Sgt. York's death in 1964, his wife remained in the home until her death in 1984. In accordance with her husband's wishes, she sold the home and farm to the State of Tennessee for use of a state park.	UBZRFGRNQ	Homestead	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
3	36.542152	-84.959606	Civilian Soldier	Argonne Forest	Sergeant Alvin C. York is one of the most decorated World War I soldiers. He rose to fame with his brave actions in Argonne Forest of France on October 8th, 1918 when York and 16 of his fellow soldiers were ambushed behind German lines. Using his "Tennessee sharp-shooting" skills, he led the remaining members of his patrol to capture German forces that include four officers and 128 soldiers. His brave actions awarded him over 40 medals, including the Congressional Medal of Honor and the French Croix de Guerre.	PBZCNAL T	Company G	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
4	36.544281	-84.961014	WWI Replica Trench	Take Cover	A WWI reproduction trench lies behind the York home. You can experience the intricacies of life in the trenches, and if you stand behind the trench and look through the woods, you can see the bare cliffs peeking through what is locally called the Yellow Doors.	LRYBYJ QBBEF	Yellow Doors	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
5	36.541594	-84.959538	General Merchandise	Replica Store	Designed to look like the original Alvin York & Sons General Merchandise Store, sitting on the exact location, now serves as the visitor's center and museum. Inside is a collection of period correct merchandise and displays of York's WWI experiences.	LBEX NAQ FBAB	York and Sons	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
6	36.541533	-84.962144	Grist Mill	York & Sons	Built in 1883, after his discharge from the Army, York occasionally worked in this mill. In the later part of 1943 he bought it and began producing his own brand of corn mill. However, York was on the road often during WWII making speeches to promote the war effort, as well as talks from agriculture to religion. He let his brothers and sons operate the mill.	PBEA ZVYY	Corn Mill	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
7	36.549257	-84.960975	Educational Legacy	Higher Education	York used funds he received from the movie Sergeant York to promote education and his religious convictions through creation of an interdenominational Bible School. The facility would train song leaders, Sunday school teachers, lay ministers and others as well as offer formal Vacation Bible School curricula.	LBEX OVOYR FPUBBY	York Bible School	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
8	36.54763	-84.954518	Burial Site	Final Rest	The Wolf River Cemetery is the final resting place for both Alvin C. York and his wife Gracie Williams York.	JBYS EVIRE PRZRGREL	Wolf River Cemetery	Sgt. Alvin C. York State Historic Park	(931) 879-6456
9	36.380913	-84.884213	Allardt Land Company	Commerce	The Gernt Office was in association with Allardt's commerce history and with its town founder, Bruno Gernt. Constructed in 1898, the building served as Gernt's office where he managed the land sales responsible for the development of the Town of Allardt.	TREAG BSSVPR	Gernt Office	City of Allardt, TN	(931) 879-7125
10	36.38049	-84.881365	Memorial Park	Bruno Gernt	This Memorial Park is dedicated to Bruno Gernt. Born in Dresden, Germany in 1851, immigrated to the United States in the mid 1870's as the spokesperson for a German colonization group. Allardt wasn't his first established settlement; his first was Saxonia, Michigan. According to local tradition, Gernt received his inspiration for starting Allardt was from the nearby settlement of the Ruby Colony in Morgan County.	QERFQRA	Dresden	City of Allardt, TN	(931) 879-7125
11	36.427386	-84.932362	Tennessee Legislator	Establishment	Established in 1823, the City of Jamestown is the county seat for Fentress County, both of which were named after James Fentress, a prominent Tennessee Legislator who lived from 1763 to 1843. Jamestown was officially incorporated in 1837.	WNZRF SRAGERFF	James Fentress	Fentress County Courthouse	(931) 879-8014
12	36.428205	-84.931579	Water source for settlers	Springs	This landmark of Fentress County was named after Samuel Langhorne Clemens, better known as Mark Twain. This spring was a source of water for early settlers of Jamestown.	FNAQ FCEVATF	Sand Springs	Mark Twain Park
13	36.428075	-84.931825	Father of American Literature	Twain	Samuel L. Clemens, better known by his pen name Mark Twain, was an American writer, humorist, entrepreneur, publisher, and lecturer. He was lauded as the "greatest humorist the United States has produced." Others called him "the father of American Literature."	FNZHRY PYZRZAF	Samuel Clemens	Mark Twain Park
14	36.42777	-84.932684	Ye Old Jail	Sandstone Structure	This location served as the "Ye Old Jail" for Fentress County and is now home of the Chamber of Commerce. This building was designed by John Clemens, the father of Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain), constructed in 1898 and is the oldest public buildings in the county. It served as a jail from 1898 until 1979.	WBUA PYZRZAF	John Clemens	Chamber of Commerce	(931) 879-9948		