1	36.04422222	-85.59461111	Over the Centuries	Burgess Falls 1	The history of Burgess Falls can be traced back over three centuries. Before European settlement, Indians of the Cherokee, Creek and Chickasaw tribes shared this region as a hunting ground. One of the first white settlers, Thomas Burgess, received a land grant here in 1793 as partial payment for his services in the Revolutionary War.
